

Aboriginal Liaison Officer (Part-time)

Are you passionate about our beautiful and unique country and would like to take part in caring for it?

The Northern Agricultural Catchments Council (NACC) is seeking a motivated person to join the organisation— based in Geraldton, Western Australia.

This position will assist the Indigenous Program Coordinator to deliver Aboriginal projects for NACC, as well as provide support to and assist NACC staff with ongoing engagement of Aboriginal people in NACC's on-ground environmental projects.

To fill this role NACC is ideally seeking an Aboriginal person who understands the roles and responsibilities that Aboriginal people and organisations play in NRM.

The ideal candidate would also have the ability to communicate effectively and work with a range of individuals, community groups, government, partner organisations and other NRM Stakeholders.

To apply for this position, please contact Greg Burrows at NACC for the application details and to express your interest (E) Greg.Burrows@nacc.com.au (P) 08 9938 0109.

Applications close 1 October 2015, 5pm WST.
