

2019 WA Threatened Species Forum
5-6 September 2019
Queens Park Theatre, Geraldton

NACC is again hosting the WA Threatened Species Forum in Geraldton and have selected 5-6 September for the forum itself. This will be the third time the WA Threatened Species Forum will be held in Geraldton, with the inaugural event in 2015 bringing together more than 180 people from a cross-section of society with a common concern for WA's animals and plants.

What NACC is offering?

- $500 to support individual community members to attend the upcoming 2019 WA Threatened Species Forum
- All other costs beyond the $500 subsidy will be the responsibility of the individual.

To be eligible you must:

- Submit an expression of interest by 3pm Friday 23 August.
- Live in the Northern Agricultural Region of WA.
- Following the symposium, provide NACC with photographs and a brief summary outlining key learnings or information found particularly interesting. This may also be used by NACC to develop an article which will be published in the NACC Notes (Newsletter) or other media sources.
- NACC would also like the opportunity to take a group photo at the forum of those attending.

Payment

- NACC will provide support of up to $500 to pay the conference registration fee, accommodation, meals and or transport expenses to attend the 2019 WA Threatened Species Forum.
- Payment will be made via electronic funds transfer after the event and once all eligibility requirements are met.

For more information about the NACC subsidy please contact Jessica Stingemore on jessica.stingemore@nacc.om.au or 9938 0106.
